Annual Meeting of The 1818 Society

The 31st Annual Meeting of The 1818 Society will be held on Wednesday, October 21, 2009. The business meeting will take place in the Preston Auditorium. The business meeting will be followed by a reception and a dinner in the 12th floor gallery of the Main Complex. Further information will be mailed later.

From The 1818 Society President’s Desk

Dear Members:

The news of Robert McNamara’s passing was deeply felt by our members, many of whom had the privilege of being associated with him during his remarkable tenure at the World Bank. We received many spontaneous expressions of awe, admiration and gratitude for Robert McNamara’s contribution to development and to the Bank. We also cannot forget that the 1818 Society was formed during his tenure.

We are planning a gathering, possibly in partnership with the World Bank, before the end of September, to focus on Robert McNamara’s contributions and legacy. Our management committee felt that this would be an appropriate way of celebrating his extraordinary impact on development while respecting his wishes for no ‘memorial service’ per se. As soon as the date is fixed, we will post the information on the 1818 Society’s website; all 1818 Society members will be warmly welcome.

Robert S. MacNamara

Many of our members could not attend the meeting that was held at short notice at World Bank Headquarters to honor Robert McNamara. The Bank has obviously changed a lot since his tenure, and few of the staff who knew and worked with Mr. McNamara then, are still here. But our sentiments were thoughtfully expressed by Olivier Lafourcade, his last Personal Assistant, and currently Chair of our French Chapter, who spoke on the occasion, along with the Bank’s Managing Directors. We have reproduced Olivier’s address below and dedicate this edition of the Bulletin to Robert McNamara’s memory.

Sincerely

Shiva

Olivier Lafourcade’s Address

A Tribute to Robert S. McNamara

Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen.

I am Olivier Lafourcade.

I worked at the World Bank from 1973 to 2002. I retired from the Bank after thirty years of service, the first eight of which fell under the Presidency of Bob McNamara.

I am part of a team of six Bank staff who served in sequence as Personal Assistants to Robert McNamara during his thirteen years as President of the Bank, from 1968 till 1981. Others would have been more qualified and more eloquent than me to give this brief testimony on the occasion of Bob’s passing away two days ago. I consider it a privilege to be here today, speaking on behalf not only of my five colleagues who, like me, lived and worked so closely with Bob during all these years at the Bank, but also on behalf of so many present and former staff members who, one way or another, for different lengths of time, and at all levels, were part of what came to be known as McNamara’s Bank. I know that many of them would have liked to be with us today.

Dear Bob,

Your passing away inevitably brings back lots of memories and lots of emotions. Sure enough, others have already written books, and some will write even more books about the Bank under McNamara. I just note that in the last two days, most if not all comments have been focused on your life before the Bank, with no reference to your time and your achievements at the Bank. This was probably predictable, and to some extent justifiable.

And yet, for many of us, indeed for most of us, gathered here today, it is precisely your role, your achievements and your impact at the Bank that we want to remember. For many of us, and way beyond us, you represent a true benchmark in the way the world has dealt with the challenges of international development over the last four decades. Indeed, you shaped this institution, you gave it a soul – you gave it a conscience. You gave it the means to achieve its objectives. You set the course.

Yes, we knew where you were coming from. But more importantly it did not take too long to understand where you wanted to take us. Very early on, you set a paradigm where the key challenge was no longer development for what, but development for whom. In the early seventies, with your benchmark speech in Nairobi in 1973, you set the objective clearly, that is the reduction of poverty, and you never ceased to do your utmost to reach that objective.

Thank you for putting the Bank on the map. Thank you for giving us reasons to excel. Thank you for making our workdays something worth living for.

To follow you was not always easy. The road was often a bumpy one. And we did not always live up to your expectations.
You were going fast, sometimes too fast. You were demanding, sometimes too demanding. You made mistakes, we made mistakes. But with all our mistakes and our shortcomings, you were still able to take the best in us. When you asked us to jump, we did not ask: how high? Thank you for being an inspiration to many among us.

With my colleagues in our small group, we were among the few who could witness the difference between the rigorous, sometimes austere public servant, and the warm, private individual who enjoyed the jokes of William Clark, Dave Hopper or Jean-David Roullet.

Many of us felt privileged to work under your guidance and leadership. We were awed by your sense of purpose, the sense of a worthy cause, your sense of commitment, your sense of achievement. You set new standards, new benchmarks for our trade. You did not always succeed. But you certainly gave us reasons to hope.

Yes, like so many others, I am proud to have been part of McNamara’s Bank.

Thank you, Bob. Farewell.

Olivier Lafourecade

ANZ CHAPTER

Meeting 2009

Date: November, 2009
Place: Sydney.

After the successful meeting in Wellington, New Zealand, in April, the Chapter plans to hold a meeting in Sydney in November 2009 (date to be announced). Meetings in Brisbane/Gold Coast/Sunshine Coast and Canberra are under consideration for 2010.

A submission to the Australian Government enquiry on taxation, of relevance to the taxation of the Bank’s pension, has been prepared on behalf of ADB’s retirees. Jo. Martins (Chair) and other members of the Chapter have been involved in the wide consultation that has taken place in the preparation of the submission.

The Senior Professional Associates program was the subject of discussion by the management committee of the relevant Bank’s country department with a view to its immediate implementation in Timor Leste, Papua New Guinea and Pacific Islands.

Suggestions and/or offers to work as volunteers for the Chapter can be sent to Jo Martins. His e-mail address is jmartins@tpg.com.au; his postal address: 103 Cabarita Rd, Avalon Beach NSW 2107 Australia and his telephone number 61+2+99733022.

1818 BRITISH CHAPTER (BC)

Winter Reunion 2009

Date: December 5, 2009.
Place: Thistle Hotel, Euston.
Time: 12 noon

Please note the change of date. A drinks reception in the Westminster Bar will be followed by lunch in the Brasserie. Registration forms will be distributed to BC members in November 2009; more information can be had from Ian Hill Tel. 44 (0) 1730 821440. Email: iandphill@tiscali.co.uk.
Spring Reunion 2010 and 22nd Annual Meeting

Date: May 7 – 9, 2010.
Place: Hilton Hotel, Bath

Please note that the date is earlier than usual.
The City of Bath and surroundings will provide a fascinating venue for the reunion. Ancient settlement developed around natural hot springs and the Celts worshipped here. The Romans bathed here and their baths still stand. The heritage of magnificent Georgian buildings forms the heart of the City. The Victorians took the waters here and those inclined may still take the waters by visiting the modern Millennium Spa. A planned visit to the nearby medieval village of Lacock will form an interesting contrast to the splendors of Bath. Details and registration forms will be distributed in February 2010; More information from Ian Hill Tel. 44 (0) 1730 821440. Email: iandphill@tiscali.co.uk

An e-mail has been sent to all those who have expressed interest, confirming their membership in the Canadian Chapter, and directing them to the new website.

In the meantime, any additional Canadian retirees who are interested in joining can contact Jim on jsmith.econ@gmail.com. Jim will also welcome help in the task of contacting other Canadians who may potentially be interested.

1818 ENERGY SECTOR GROUP

The Group is planning two lunch presentations as part of our 1818 Energy Group Fall program: the first on the Bank’s new Energy Strategy as Bank Group lending for energy rebounded to over $6 billion in new commitments for the fiscal year just ended, FY 09; the second, on the role of nuclear energy in meeting future energy demand in developing countries. We expect the exact dates for these presentations to be firmed up by the end of August and will, of course, advise you all.

The Group is also planning again an end-2009 social event in early December which we hope to hold at the residence of one of our 1818 energy colleagues. Again, we will keep you closely informed of the venue and specific date for this event.

News and Notices

From the Editor

The summer dinner of July 1 went well. With over one hundred participants, it was a well attended and lively affair. On June 11, Katherine Sierra gave a well-attended presentation during an alumni forum event. Her topic was climate change and the Bank’s role therein. A video-recording of her presentation is on the Society’s website. You will likewise find on the website video-recordings of the Tax and Estate Planning Seminar, as well as recordings of medical insurance issues that were given in June by Aetna and Catalyst.

Please note that I plan to send the next two issues of the Bulletin to the print shop on the morning of Thursday, September 17, 2009 and Thursday, December 17, 2009.

Handbook for Survivors

An updated version of the Society's Handbook for Survivors of World Bank Group Retirees was issued in May 2009. The revisions are not substantive, since the matters discussed in the Handbook are largely contractual in nature, and do not change over time. But some names and phone numbers have been updated, and there are one or two additional “warnings” (for instance about the need to arrange for a durable power of attorney, so that the annual life certificate can be signed even if the pension recipient is incapacitated). The updated version is available on the Society's website by clicking on Publications in the left side panel, and a printed copy can be obtained from the 1818 Society office.

Although in general the Society is moving in the direction of electronic communications, there are some advantages in having a printed copy of this document, whether you keep your old copy, print the new version from the website, or get the new version from the office. In particular, it will be easier for a survivor to find and read the Handbook if it is in “hard copy” form, and filed with other important papers. Having a paper document also makes it easy to record the UPIs (staff numbers) of the retiree and spouse inside the front and back covers of the Handbook, where they can easily be found.

The film shows the story of Angola, a nation torn apart by forty years of uninterrupted war, and now trying imperfectly but courageously to piece itself back together. It is also the story of a city, Luanda, trying to absorb the millions of people displaced by civil strife and global economic change.

The Hero is a universal story. In Central Europe, Latin America, Africa and in all the places where there is or there was war, hundreds of thousands must deal with the stigma, try to survive and become a part of post-war society.

Director Zizi Gamboa considers himself in the camp of African filmmakers who see their work as contributing directly to the task of national reconstruction.

Therefore, if you need to ascertain whether your preference for a health professional is a member of Aetna’s network, you should ask him or her that question before making your choice. Choosing a provider who is not a member of Aetna’s network can be very costly to you. However, if you have access to the Internet, there is another way of identifying which doctors are in Aetna’s network. Aetna’s web address is at www.aetna.com. Once you are at Aetna’s home page, you can use “DocFind” to find health care professionals of all kinds within X miles of your home (X is your choice of the distance from your home to the provider). The information given for each doctor includes whether he or she accepts new patients, their specialty, gender, languages spoken, Board Certification status and education (University and graduation year). “DocFind” is slightly simpler to use if you have registered yourself with a username and password for Aetna, because in this case the system supplies your address and what type of Plan you have (Open Choice PPO). You can do the registration online from Aetna’s homepage, or you can call Aetna at 1-800-225-3375 for a live person to help you through the process.

Being registered has the additional benefit of allowing you to view your “Explanation of Benefits” online.

Identifying Generic Drugs

We all know that using generic drugs rather than brand name drugs can save us a lot of money. But how do we identify the generics and how do we persuade our doctors to prescribe them?

If you have Internet access, you can go to the website of Catalyst, our Pharmacy Service Provider (www.catalystrx.com) and log in with information that is on your pharmacy card. Under the “Drug Information” link on the home page of

Aetna’s Directory of Providers

Aetna’s paper-based "Directory of Providers" is now many years out of date and there are no plans to issue an update.
Catalyst, you can find the names of preferred drugs. There are two ways of doing this. You can search for the name of a specific drug (say Lipitor) and find the names of preferred drugs (in this case Atorvastatin calcium or Statins generally). You can also print out an up-to-date condensed version of the Catalyst Rx Incentive Formulary, where the name brands are in lower case letters and the brand names in upper case letters. Catalyst recommends that you bring a copy of this information with you during visits to your doctors, so that they can prescribe the generic version of a drug when appropriate.

When you Change Your Address

When you change your address, you must complete form 2374 from the Pension Department, sign it and send it to the Bank. Sending an e-mail to the Pension Department is not enough. You can either mail or fax the form. If you mail the form, it is to:
Pension Administration Division
The World Bank
1818 H Street, NW, MSN MC7-710
Washington, DC 20433,
If you fax the signed document, send it via phone number 202-522-1723.
To get a blank form, you can ask for it from the Pension Department (Tel: 202 458 2977), or copy it via the Society’s website (www.worldbank.org/1818). If you choose the latter (preferred) option, look for the box labeled “Related Site Access” on the right hand side of the Society’s home page. Locate “Pension”, then “Forms” at the bottom left of next page, then select either “Gross or Net Plan”. Form 2374, which you must print, is item # 15 under the Gross Plan.
Please note that you also need to inform the 1818 Society when you change your address, e-mail or phone number. The best way to do this is via Internet and e-mail. On the right hand side of the Society’s home page there is a box with the heading “Quick Links”. Under “Forms”, select the address change form and copy it into an email. Fill in the form and send it as an e-mail to the 1818 Society (1society@worldbank.org). If you do not have Internet access, call the Society (202-458-1956) to ask for a blank form via mail. The Society will not accept address-related changes over the phone.

Half Price Tickets

If high prices keep you from attending plays, concerts, sporting events or exhibits, consider joining Goldstar.com, an online seller of half-price tickets (with a service charge averaging about $4.50/ticket). Goldstar operates in eight cities: Los Angeles, New York, San Francisco, Las Vegas, Boston, Chicago, San Diego and Washington DC. Signup is free and gets you a weekly email list of current and upcoming local events - about 200 at any given time from classes to concerts.

Volunteer Opportunity

The World Bank Group Archives has received a donation of personal papers of the late Gloria Davis. Included in the papers are a number of publications in Bahasa Indonesian. The Archives would greatly appreciate the assistance of someone who reads Bahasa, who could come and translate the names of titles and authors’ names. There are approximately 100 items. Please contact Trudy Peterson at Tpeterson@worldbank.org if you are interested.
