

South-South

LEARNING VISIT FEBRUARY 8-21 INDIA

Organized by the Africa and South Asia Regions of the World Bank and hosted by NASSCOM

Name: Jee Peng Tan

Title: Education Advisor

Company: The World Bank

TAN Jee Peng is currently the Regional Education Advisor in the Human Development Department of the World Bank's Africa Region. In this capacity, she provides technical leadership on analytical and policy work on education in Africa, mentors junior staff, advises on strategic directions for the World Bank's support for education in the Africa Region, and represents the department in its interactions with other organizations within and outside the World Bank in matters pertaining to education in Africa. Ms. Tan has been a staff member of the World Bank since 1981. She has held positions as an economist in various parts of the institution, including South Asia and East Asia where, among other tasks, she led policy studies on education, health and population, and in the central unit of the Human Development Network where she developed and taught courses on policy analysis in education, and pioneered the use of Quality Enhancement Reviews to improve the quality of World Bank operations in education. She was a core member of the team for 1993 World Development Report on Investing in Health. Ms. Tan has a B.Sc. in economics from the London School of Economics, and a Ph.D. in economics from Princeton University.