Books from our Colleagues

Many hard working World Bank Group staff have written about a variety of subjects other than economics and development. Several of them donate proceeds from sales to charitable causes.

The Journey Within by Praful Patel (editor) and Dinesh Patel (photographer)
Former South Asia region VP Praful Patel, along with his friend and colleague Dinesh Patel, has produced this exceptional collection of photographs to share a personal perspective of Africa’s wildlife heritage. This book would make an exquisite gift. All proceeds go to charity.

$100 Hardcover w/ slipcase  $50.00 Paperback

You Must be Joking!!! Jokes, Quotes & Heart Warming Stories from the Internet by Mr Tim Stapenhurst and Dr Rick Stapenhurst
Governance consultant Rick Stapenhurst and his brother have collected jokes, quotes, puzzles and stories through the internet for many years. They have put the best of them together in this hilarious collection. As all proceeds go to charity, you’ll be having a laugh and helping charities at the same time!

$10.00 Paperback

The Cheetah Who Wouldn’t Run and Merlin’s Big Surprise by Agi Kiss
Regional Environmental and Safeguards Advisor Agi Kiss has a passion for children’s literature. Kids will love to read about cheetah cub Mjuvi (Cheeky), who wants to know everything about everything and keeps his mom busy. They’ll also love to meet Merlin, a rabbit who doesn’t like surprises, adventures or exploring. His new playmate PingPong teaches him about trying new things and the true meaning of friendship.

Both books are available in English and Spanish.

Cheetah $7 paperback  Merlin $12 hardcover

Cooking the Cambodian Way: The Intertwined Story of Cooking and Culture in Cambodia by Narin Seng Jameson
Bank retiree Narin Seng Jameson takes readers on a culinary journey to Cambodia, sharing a passion for traditional dishes she savored as a child. All proceeds benefit Caring for Cambodia, a charitable organization.

$30 hardcover

Contemporary Literature of Africa: Tijan M. Sallah and Literary Works of The Gambia edited by Wumi Raji
World Bank economist Tijan M. Sallah is also a renowned Gambian poet, short story writer and biographer. To date, he has published ten books: five collections of poetry, a volume of short stories, two edited anthologies of poetry, a literary biography of Chinua Achebe, and an ethnographic book on Wolof, the dominant ethnic group of the Senegambian people.

$110 hardcover

Nineteenth Street NW: A Tale of Terror in the World Financial Markets by Rex Ghosh
Fund staff write too! Atish Rex Ghosh, of the IMF Research Department has written this captivating financial thriller with a fast-paced plot that offers a rare glimpse into the mechanisms behind world economies.

$16.95 paperback