

Best Laid Plans?

How Ignoring Political Economy Affects Development Outcomes and Increases Risk

From the root causes of unrest in the Middle East and North Africa, to concern about the social impacts of global financial instability -- Why is political economy still so underestimated for project success? Join MIGA for the launch of its annual World Investment and Political Risk report as we host a lively discussion around this topic with anecdotes from the field and perceptions from the financial industry.

2011

WORLD INVESTMENT
AND POLITICAL RISK

World Investment Trends and
Corporate Perspectives
Government Takings and Expropriations
The Political Risk
Insurance Industry

OPENING REMARKS:

Izumi Kobayashi

*Executive Vice President
Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency*

PRESENTER:

Ravi Vish

*Director and Chief Economist
Economics and Policy
Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency*

MODERATOR:

Daniel Villar

*Lead Risk Management Officer
Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency*

DISCUSSANTS:

Sarah E. Alexander

*President and CEO
Emerging Markets Private Equity Association*

Maureen Harrington

Director, Corporate and Investment Banking Standard Bank

Subramaniam V. Iyer

Director, Sustainable Energy Department World Bank

Jean Pierre Lacombe

Head of Financial Engineering International Finance Corporation

Tuesday

March 6, 2012

12:00 PM - 2:00 PM

Light lunch to precede event

Auditorium J1-050

World Bank J Building
18th Street & Pennsylvania Ave, NW
Washington, DC

RSVP infohopevents@worldbank.org