How 17 Countries Are Leading the Way

By Steven Radelet

Emerging Africa: How 17 Countries Are Leading the Way

takes a fresh approach by recognizing the important differences between Africa's emerging countries, the oil-exporters (where progress has been uneven and volatile), and the others (where there has been little progress) instead of treating Sub-Saharan Africa as a monolithic entity.

This important book describes the revitalization underway in the emerging countries and why it is likely to continue.
