

Breaking the Silence

HIV/AIDS Facts & Priorities in the Middle East & North Africa

Please join us for the first ever comprehensive scientific analysis characterizing the HIV/AIDS epidemic across the MENA region.

Policy makers, researchers, and partners will discuss the findings and implications for prioritizing resources in the midst of fundamental social and political changes in the region.

INTRODUCTION: Akiko Maeda
*Sector Manager
Health, Nutrition & Population
Middle East & North Africa Region
World Bank*

OPENING
REMARKS: Shamshad Akhtar
*Regional Vice President
Middle East & North Africa Region
World Bank*

PRESENTER: Laith J. Abu-Raddad
*Assistant Professor in Public Health
Director of the Biostatistics &
Biomathematics Research Core
Weill Cornell Medical College
Qatar*

DISCUSSANTS: Farida Allaghi
*Chief Executive Officer
Mentor Arabia*

Irene Jillson
*Assistant Professor
Department of Nursing
School of Nursing & Health Studies
Georgetown University*

Majed Al-Jonaid
*Deputy Minister
Primary Health Care Sector
Ministry of Public Health & Population
Yemen*

CLOSING
REMARKS: David Wilson
*Program Director
AIDS Team, Health, Nutrition & Population
World Bank*

Tuesday
February 15, 2011
11:00 - 12:30 PM
Light lunch will be served

Eugene Black Auditorium
World Bank H Building
600 19th Street, NW
Washington, DC
RSVP infoshopevents@worldbank.org