

PIRATE TRAILS

Tracking the Illicit Financial Flows from Piracy off the Horn of Africa

Since 2005 over US$400 million has been paid in ransoms to pirates who've hijacked ships in the Indian Ocean. Pirate Trails, a report by the World Bank, INTERPOL, and UN Office on Drugs and Crime looks at what happens to the proceeds of piracy, how and to whom the proceeds are distributed, the ways in which they are invested and what can be done to block the illicit financial flows.
