

Postcrisis Growth and Development

A Development Agenda for the G-20

edited by Shahrokh Fardoust, Yongbeom Kim and Claudia Sepúlveda

The G-20 can play an important role in the aftermath of the crisis by making medium-term growth and development issues the center of the G-20 agenda. The book proposes key areas for G-20 action on aid for trade, infrastructure and sustainable development, food security, and financial inclusion in order to achieve strong, sustainable and balanced growth in a multipolar world.

MODERATOR: Lawrence MacDonald

*Vice President
Communications & Policy Outreach
Center for Global Development*

LEAD PANELIST: Justin Yifu Lin

*Chief Economist & Senior Vice President
Development Economics
World Bank*

EDITOR/PRESENTER: Shahrokh Fardoust

*Director Operations & Strategy
Development Economics
World Bank*

PANELISTS: Moisés Naím

*Senior Associate
International Economics Program
Carnegie Endowment for International Peace*

Arvind Subramanian

*Senior Fellow
Peterson Institute for International Economics*

Tuesday

December 7, 2010

3:00 - 4:30 PM

Reception to follow

J1-050 Auditorium

World Bank J Building

18th Street & Pennsylvania Ave, NW

Washington, DC

RSVP infoshopevents@worldbank.org