

Nigeria Financial System Strategy 2020 Workshop

December 18-20, 2006
Washington, D.C.

Session 4: Credit Markets and SMEs

Peter Mousley, Lead Private Sector Specialist; and various World Bank presenters, Africa Region,

Presentation: Lessons Learned and Reform Opportunities

In this session, Peter and colleagues discuss the role and development of credit bureaus as a means to strengthening credit markets; they will also discuss how emerging economies are reaching beyond leasing to broader secured transaction programs; in addition, they will address SME markets.

Other Presenters:

Mehnaz Safavian - Investment Climate Unit, Private and Financial Sector Anchor

Thomas Muller - Finance and Private Sector, Africa Region

Interveners:

Lorraine Ronchi - Sustainable Development Department

Martin Holtmann - Consultative Group for Assistance to the Poorest (CGAP)