

The following NGOs and projects were the winners of the 2006 Small Grant's Program:

ZUM – Organization for Promotion of Youth Employment and Development, Pula. Through Education To Activism project is designed to fulfill the need of youth for informal education and to promote the youth activism and to involve them in the process of development of the local community.

HILS - Croatian Institute for Local Government, Osijek
Citizen Participation in Local Governance in Eastern Slavonia project focuses on promoting the way for citizens to address local authorities and get attention for issues relevant for the development and well-being of their communities.

Croatian Association for Guide Dogs Training and Mobility, Zagreb
How to Approach and Communicate project aims to inform the youth, children and broader public as to be better responsive to specific needs, rights and possibilities of disabled (blind) people in improving their social inclusion in the towns of Varaždin, Čakovec and Koprivnica.

MMH – Croatian Youth Network, Zagreb
Establishing Regional Youth Councils in Central Croatia project aims at creating Regional Youth Councils in Varaždin, Karlovac and Koprivnica-Križevci counties as independent entities which gather various youth organizations.

Open Academy -- Step by Step, Zagreb
Education for Social Justice - Anti-bias Education project targets 30 students of the Osijek-based Teachers Academy, who will through informal education gain knowledge and understanding of mechanism that create and perpetuate prejudices and stereotypes towards disadvantage groups (based on ethnic, religious, social background, or disability), as well as to develop capacity for change on personal, and future professional and institutional level.

KRIK - Youth NGO, Slatina
Youth Participation project aims at mobilizing young people of Slatina town to actively participate in planning and implementation of development projects of local self-government.

Flight - Life Quality Improvement NGO, Zagreb
Awareness Raising on Single Parent Families project is on publishing the 2nd edition of the Handbook for Single Parents and Their Children and organizing consultancy meetings and round tables in 4 Croatian cities where single parents, experts, representatives of local authorities will discuss the needs of single parents and possible ways of addressing those needs.

Dominoes - Association for Development of Civil Society and Promotion of Women's Rights, Split
Let's Learn More About Our Rights –Women's Rights project aims to inform citizens, particularly women, on their rights as stipulated in Croatian Gender Equality Law and to advocate for its enforcement at all levels.