

GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE 1999

Volume I: Analysis and Summary Tables

Table of Contents

Overview

Chapter 1 (110k PDF)

A More Difficult International Economic Environment for Developing Countries

The Implications of the Crisis in Brazil for Other Developing Countries
Industrial Countries
Current Account Balances and Capital Flows
International Trade
Commodity Prices
Risks to the Forecast
Notes

Chapter 2 (138k PDF)

Flows from International Capital Markets Decline

Flows from International Capital Markets during the Financial Crisis
The Prospects for Flows from International Capital Markets
Private Flows to Low-Income Countries with Good Policies
Annex: Derivatives and the Financial Crisis
Notes
References

Chapter 3 (125k PDF)

Foreign Direct Investment Resilient in the Face of Financial Crisis

The Surge in FDI in the 1990s
FDI and Development
FDI Resilience during Financial Crises
FDI Flows to the East Asian Crisis Countries
The Prospects for FDI Flows
Notes
References

Chapter 4 (77k PDF)

Aid Declines Despite Progress on Policy Reform in Recipient Countries

Trends in Aid
Improvements in Aid
Aid Effectiveness
Aid and Poverty
Progress under the HIPC Initiative
Annex: OECD and World Bank Data on Aid and Other Official Flows
Notes
References

Chapter 5 (100k PDF)

Debt Restructuring and Rescue Packages Helped Offset Private Capital Flow Reversals during the Financial Crisis

Debt Restructuring

Rescue Packages, Systemic Risk, and Moral Hazard

Notes

References