
Index

- A
accelerated vs. remedial programs, 30–31
access to learning
 adult continuing education and training, 45
 assessment results by school, access to, 69–70
 equity of, 14–15, 71–72, 78 expansion of, 44–46
 technology and computer access, 41–42
 women’s disparity in education and technology training, 14–15
accreditation, xxii–xxiii, 67–70
acronyms, list of, xxv administration and governance, see governance and policy issues
adult continuing education and training
 access to, 45
 basic competencies, universal mastery of, 77
 financing, 91, 92–97
 income-contingent repayment schemes, 85
 increasing importance of, xxi nature of child vs. adult learning, 31
Adult Literacy and Lifeskills Survey (ALL), 102 Africa, see also Sub-Saharan Africa, and specific countries
 distance learning, 49, 51, 53
 equity in education, 71
 North Africa, 68, 74, 109
 private sector education and training, 17
 women, disparity in education of, 14
Africa Educational Trust, 85
ALL (Adult Literacy and Lifeskills Survey), 102
allocation of resources, 77–78, 91
Angola, 52
Arab world, see Middle East, and specific countries
Argentina, 9, 75
Armenia, xxiii, 78
Asia, see also Middle East, and specific countries
 Central Asia, xix, 7, 51, 68
 distance learning, 51
 East Asia, 109
 math and science skills, 25–26
 policy concerns, xix
 South Asia, 14, 68, 74
 wage differentials, artificial compression of, 6
 women, disparity in education of, 14
assessment and certification standards, xxii, 63–69, 102–103
assessment-driven learning, 32–33 asset-building schemes, 94–95
Australia
 adult continuing education and training, access to, 45
 assessment and certification standards, 69
 civil society, participation in, 27
 computer hardware and output growth, 4
 coordination across ministries, 60
 Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS), 85, 86
 literacy, 24
 technology used to create effective learning environment, 37
 TIMSS performance compared to per capital GNP, 26
Austria, 93
autonomous action as knowledge economy competency, 21

B

Bangladesh, xxii, 25, 68, 74, 95
 Barbados, 42
 basic knowledge and competencies,
 mastery of, xix–xx, 21–28, 76–78, 103, 104
 Basque Country, 96
 Becker, Gary S., 73
 Belgium, 24, 27
 benchmarking, xxiv, 102–107
 Bolivia, 48
 Botswana, 49
 Bowie Bonds, 84
 Brazil
 asset-building schemes, 94, 95
 Bolsa Escola program, 95
 distance learning, 53
 higher education enrollment, xviii
 night schools, 47
 payroll levies, 93, 94
 private/public education funding, 76
 private sector education and training,
 xviii, 17
 rates of return on education, 9, 10
 Bulgaria, xviii, 19, 26
 Burkina Faso, 77

C

Canada
 computer hardware and output growth, 4
 distance learning, 52
 education savings accounts (ESAs), 97, 98
 literacy, 24
 rates of return on education, 8
 TIMSS performance compared to per capital GNP, 26
 career guidance and counseling, 54–55
 Caribbean, 14, 33–34, 51, 68, 109, see also specific countries
 Central and Eastern Europe, xviii–xix, 19, 46, 68, 108
 Central Asia, xix, 7, 51, 68
 certification of student competencies, 63–69
 CES (Citizenship and Education Study),
 International Association for Evaluation of Educational Achievement, 102
 child development and mothers' education, relationship between, 7
 child vs. adult learning, 31

Chile

adult continuing education and training,
 access to, 45
 assessment and certification standards, 66, 68
 civil society, participation in, 27
 coordination across ministries, 60
 financing post-secondary education, 81–82
 IALS performance, effect of, 102
 literacy, 24
 Microcentros Program, 36
 private education funding, 75, 76
 rates of return on education, 9
 teacher training in technology, 41
 technology and computer access, 42
 TIMSS performance compared to per
 capital GNP, 26
 vocational vs. university training, barrier between, 66
 World Bank project in, xiv, 60, 108, 109

China
 assessment and certification standards, 69
 distance learning, 49, 51, 52, 53
 higher education enrollment, xviii
 Hong Kong, 26, 51, 70
 literacy, 23
 number of spaces in higher education, 76
 private sector education and training,
 xviii, 19
 Taiwan, 16, 25, 26
 Cisco Systems, 48, 63
 Citizenship and Education Study (CES), International Association for Evaluation of Educational Achievement, 102
 civil society, see society and community

Colombia
 adult continuing education and training,
 access to, 45
 assessment and certification standards, 68 decentralization reforms, 71 employer demands and employee training, 16
 rates of return on education, 9
 targeted voucher programs, 77
 women, disparity in education of, 15
 community, see society and community competencies and skills for a knowledge economy, xix–xx, 21–28, 76–78, 103, 104

- Computer-Supported Intentional Learning Environment (CSILE), 38
- computers, see also information and communication technology (ICT); Internet
- case study of technological and organizational change due to, 13
- cost issues, 41–42
- education technology, used as, 37–39
- number available for use in selected countries, 52
- output growth and computer hardware, 4
- policy choices regarding, 42–43
- World Bank support for educational technology, 43
- continuing education, see adult continuing education and training
- coordination of educational governance across ministries, xxii, 59–63
- core competencies, mastery of, xix–xx, 21–28, 76–78, 103, 104
- corporations
- adult continuing education and training, access to, 45
 - e-learning (distance learning), 53–54
 - employer demand and employee training, xix, 17
 - technology and organizational change, 13, 18
- cost issues generally, see financing lifelong learning
- cost-sharing schemes, 79–85, 88–89
- Costa Rica, 5, 9
- Côte d'Ivoire, 19, 45, 78
- cross-sectoral strategies (public-private partnerships), 63–65, 108, 109
- CSILE (Computer-Supported Intentional Learning Environment), 38
- Cyprus, 26
- Czech Republic
- civil society, participation in, 27
 - literacy, 24
 - math and science skills, 25
 - private sector education and training, xviii, 19
 - rates of return on education, 9
 - TIMSS and PISA performance, 26
- D
- decentralization, 71–72
- demand-side financing, 85, 89, 91–92, 95
- Denmark, 24, 91–92
- developing and transitional economies, xiii–xviii
- access to learning, 44
 - accreditation, xxii, 67–68
 - changes to promote lifelong learning in, 101–102
 - civil society, participation in, 27
 - education and training, 7–8
 - financing lifelong learning in, 74, 97–99
 - governance and policy issues, 58
 - literacy, 23–24
 - low education and skill levels, problems with, 74
 - math and science skills, 25, 26
 - private sector education and training, 17–19
 - rates of return on education, 7–9
 - teacher training strategies, 35
 - World Bank documents, 109
- Diderot, Denis, 101
- digital radio transmission and studio broadcasting for distance learning, 48
- disparate/equitable availability of education, 14–15, 71–72, 78
- distance learning, xxi, 47–54, 64, 70, 77
- diversity, ability to cope with as knowledge economy competency, 22
- document literacy, 23
- E
- e-government, 57–58
- e-learning, 53–54, 110
- early childhood education
- computers in Costa Rican schools, 5
 - enrollment levels in low-income countries, 74
 - financing, 74, 76–78, 91, 93–94, 98
 - gender equity, 1, 15
 - governance and policy issues, 58, 60, 62–64, 67–68, 71
 - importance of lifelong learning in, xiii, xvii, 3
 - national lifelong learning projects, 105
 - private sector, 19
 - transforming learning, 25, 26, 38, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47, 48, 50, 53
 - wage differentials and returns on schooling, 6, 9, 11
- East Asia, 109
- Eastern and Central Europe, xviii–xix, 19, 46, 68, 108

- economic growth and education, 4–7
- economics of education funding, see financing lifelong learning
- education and training, see also more specific topics
- developing and transitional economies, 7–8
 - economic growth and, 5–7
 - efficiency promoted by lifelong learning systems, 79
 - employer demands, 16–17
 - flexibility, increasing, 46–47
 - how vs. what is learned, 29–31
 - knowledge economy's implications for, 3–4
 - learning environments, 31–34
 - low education and skill levels, problems with, 73–76
 - market forces driving, 19
 - methods of learning, 28–31
 - private sector growth, 17–19
 - return to schooling, rising rate of, 8–11
 - social and private returns, 6
 - traditional vs. lifelong learning models, 28–29
 - vocational and technical, 62, 66, 92–97, 109
 - wage differentials and rates of return on education, 8–11
 - women, see women and girls
- education savings accounts (ESAs), 90, 97, 98
- educational technology, see computers; information and communication technology (ICT); Internet; technology
- effective learning environments, 31–34
- efficiency promoted by lifelong learning systems, 79
- Egypt, 42
- electronic government (e-government), 57–58
- electronic learning (e-learning), 53–54, 110
- emigration/immigration/migration, 13–14
- employers and employees, xix, 16–17, 80–81, 92–97
- England, see United Kingdom
- entitlement schemes, 89, 94
- environments for learning, 31–34
- equity in education, 14–15, 71–72, 78
- ESAs (education savings accounts), 90, 97, 98
- Estonia, 27
- Ethiopia, 74
- Europe, see also specific countries
- Central and Eastern Europe, xviii–xix, 19, 46, 68, 108
 - developing and transitional economies, education and training in, 7
 - distance learning, 51
 - individual learning accounts (ILAs) in Western Europe, 95–97
- European Union (EU), see also specific countries
- assessment and certification standards, xxii, 69, 70
 - career guidance and counseling programs, 54
 - support for lifelong learning concept, 108
- F
- family financial incentives to keep children in school, 95
- Fe y Alegría, 63, 64
- female education, see women and girls
- financing lifelong learning, xxiii, 73–99
- benchmarking progress, 107
 - chart of main instruments for, 80
 - computers, 41–42
 - core competencies and universal basic education, 76–78
 - cost-sharing schemes, 79–85, 88–89
 - demand-side financing, 85, 89, 91–92, 95
 - developing and transitional economies, 74, 97–99
 - distance learning, 49–53
 - family financial incentives, 95
 - guiding principles, 76–79
 - learning beyond core competencies, 79–92
 - private spending, xxiii, 75–77, 80, 85, 87, 98
 - public/government spending, xxiii, 73–76, 80, 98–99
 - reallocation of resources, 77–78, 91
 - subsidization mechanisms, 79, 85–92
 - training and nontraditional learning, 92–97
- Finland
- adult education enrollment, xxi
 - civil society, participation in, 27
 - computer hardware and output growth, 4
 - coordination across ministries, 61
 - literacy, 24
 - Nokia Ltd., organizational and technological transformation of, 18

- systemic reform for lifelong learning, 61–62
 - TIMSS and PISA performance, 26
- flexibility of traditional education,
 - increasing, xxi, 46–47
- Ford Motor Company, 46, 93
- foreign language skills, 25
- frameworks for certifying qualifications, 69, 70
- France, 5, 51, 66, 68, 93
- funding, see financing lifelong learning
- future agenda for lifelong learning, xxiii–xxiv, 101–111
- G
- Gambia, 19
- GDP (gross domestic product), educational
 - budget as percentage of, xxiv, 74–75, 102
- gender-based disparities, see women and girls
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 17
- General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS), 17
- Germany, 4, 24, 60
- Ghana, 19, 45, 52, 58, 76
- global economy
 - employer demands and employee training, 17
 - knowledge economy as, 2, 19
 - knowledge economy, global, see knowledge economy
 - migration/immigration/emigration, 13–14
 - skills and competencies required for, 22
- GLOBE, 40
- GNP, see gross national product (GNP)
- governance and policy issues, xxi–xxiii, 57–72
 - accreditation, xxii–xxiii, 67–70
 - assessment and certification standards, 63–69
 - benchmarking progress, 105–106
 - computers, 42–43
 - coordination across ministries, xxii, 59–63
 - decentralization, 71–72
 - e-government, 57–58
 - equity in education, 71–72
 - financing, see financing lifelong learning
 - political aspects of education reform, 103
 - public-private partnerships, 63–65
 - quality assurance, xxii, 65–70
 - technology, 42–43
 - traditional vs. new role of government in knowledge economy, 59
 - trends in, 57–65
- graduate taxes, 83, 89
- Greece, 9, 27
- gross domestic product (GDP), educational
 - budget as percentage of, xxiv, 74–75, 102
- gross national product (GNP)
 - civil society, measurement of participation in, 27
 - education budget as percentage of, 74
 - TIMSS performance levels measured as per capita percentage of, 25, 26
- Guatemala, 30, 95
- Guinea, 48
- H
- Heineken public-private partnerships, 64
- heterogeneity, ability to cope with as knowledge economy competency, 22
- high-income countries, see industrialized economies
- higher education, see tertiary education
- highly skilled workers
 - low education and skill levels, problems with, 73–76
 - migration of, 13–14
 - need for, 1, 8–14
 - rates of return on education for, 8–11
 - technological change and, 12–13
- Hoffer, Eric, 21
- Hong Kong (China), 26, 51, 70
- horizontal coordination of educational governance, 59–63
- human capital
 - asset-building schemes, 94–95
 - changing needs of market, meeting, xviii–xix, 1–19
 - economic growth, as source of, 4–7
 - efficiency promoted by lifelong learning systems, 79
 - social and private returns on investment in, 6
- human capital contracts, 83, 84, 88
- Hungary
 - Human Resources project, 108, 109, 110
 - literacy, 24
 - math and science skills, 25

- Hungary (continued)
 payroll levies, 93
 private education funding, 75
 Regional Labor Development Centers, 46
 TIMSS and PISA performance, 26
- I
- IALS (International Adult Literacy Survey), 23–24, 27, 102
- ICTs, see information and communication technologies
- IDAs (individual development accounts), 97
- ILAs (individual learning accounts), 90, 95–97
- illiteracy/literacy, 5, 23–25, 102–103
- immigration/emigration/migration, 13–14
- income-contingent repayment schemes, 85–88
- income, learning charged against, 83–88
- India, 7, 13, 23, 51, 70
- individual development accounts (IDAs), 97
- individual learning accounts (ILAs), 90, 95–97
- Indonesia
 adult continuing education and training,
 access to, 45
 distance learning, 51
 employer demands and employee training, 16
 national measures of advancement toward lifelong learning, 105
 private education funding, 75, 76
 TIMSS performance compared to per capital GNP, 26
- industrialized economies, 4, 8, 23–24, 44, 74
- informal learning, recognition of, 66–67
- information and communication technologies (ICTs), see also computers; Internet
 benchmarking, 103
 distance learning, 53
 Jordan's E-Learning Strategic Framework, 110 need for competent ICT workers, 1, 12 teachers and teacher training, 41–42
 transformation of learning via, xx–xxi, 36–44
 World Bank documents, 109
- inputs, benchmarking educational systems by, 102
- Intel's Costa Rica plant, 5
- Interactive Radio Instruction (IRI), 48
- interactive use of tools as knowledge economy competency, 22
- International Adult Literacy Survey (IALS), 23–24, 27, 102, 104
- International Association for Evaluation of Educational Achievement Citizenship and Education Study (CES), 102
- Internet, xxi, 39–41
 distance learning, 48, 53–54
 e-government, 57–58
 e-learning, 53–54, 110
 financing lifelong learning, 77
 public-private partnerships, 64
- Iran, 26
- Ireland, 24, 45, 51
- IRI (Interactive Radio Instruction), 48
- Israel, 26, 42
- Italy, 4, 26
- J
- Jagger, Mick, 83
- Jamaica, 33, 104
- Japan, 4, 26, 51, 77
- Jordan, 26, 53, 62, 110
- K
- Kagia, Ruth, xiv
- Kenya, 15, 45, 48, 49, 93
- knowledge-based tutors, 38
- knowledge economy, xiii–xviii, 1–19
 developing and transitional economies,
 education and training in, 7–8
 employer demands, 16–17
 global economy, as, 2, 19
 government role in, 59
 highly skilled workers, increased demand for, 1, 8–14
 human capital, importance of investing in, 4–7 implications for education and training, 3–4 skills and competencies required for, xix–xx, 21–28, 76–78, 103, 104
 women, disparity in education of, 14–15
 World Bank documents, 109
- knowledge-rich learning, 32
- Korea, Republic of, see Republic of Korea
- L
- language and language skills, 24–25, 31
- Latin America, see also specific countries
 accreditation, 68
 Caribbean, 14, 33–34, 51, 68, 109

- distance learning, 51
 - public-private partnerships, 63
 - wage differentials, artificial compression of, 6
 - women, disparity in education of, 14
 - World Bank documents, 109
 - Latvia, 26
 - learner-centered environments, 31–32
 - learners' responsibility for own learning, 78, 80
 - learning, see education and training
 - learning management and attitude assessment as benchmark, 103
 - learning tax credit, 90
 - Lesotho, 48
 - levies on payroll, 93–94
 - lifelong learning, xiii–xviii, see also education and training, and more specific topics
 - efficiency promoted by, 79
 - financing, xxiii, 73–99
 - future agenda, xxiii–xxiv, 101–111
 - governance and policy issues, xxi–xxiii, 57–72
 - knowledge economy, xiii–xviii, 1–19
 - traditional learning models vs., xix–xx, 28–29, 58
 - transforming learning, xix–xxi, xxiv, 21–55, 101–111
 - literacy/illiteracy, 5, 23–25, 102–103
 - Lithuania, 26, 27, 52
 - loans, 82, 87, 88, 92
 - low education and skill levels, problems with, 73–76
 - low-income countries, see developing and transitional economies
- M
- Macedonia, 26
 - Madagascar, 46
 - Malawi, 49, 52
 - Malaysia
 - adult continuing education and training, access to, 45
 - assessment and certification standards, 66
 - distance learning, 51, 52
 - employer demands and employee training, 16
 - ICT workers, 12
 - payroll levies, 93
 - TIMSS performance compared to per capital GNP, 26
 - Mali, 74
 - Marshall, Alfred, 1
 - Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), 41, 53
 - math and science skills, 25–27
 - Mauritius, 62, 69
 - means testing, 98
 - methods of learning, 28–31
 - Mexico
 - adult continuing education and training, access to, 45
 - assessment and certification standards, 69
 - employer demands and employee training, 16
 - Higher Education Financing Project, 87
 - migration of technology graduates, 14
 - Progres/Oportunidades*, 95
 - rates of return on education, 9
 - Telesecundaria program (distance learning), xxi, 48, 53
 - Mick Jagger effect, 83
 - Middle East
 - accreditation, 68
 - low education and skill levels, problems with, 74
 - public-private partnerships, 63, 64
 - wage differentials, artificial compression of, 6
 - women, disparity in education of, 14
 - World Bank documents, 109
 - middle-income countries, 9, 44
 - migration, 13–14
 - MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology), 41, 53
 - Moldova, 26
 - Mongolia, 50
 - Morocco, 26
 - mortgage-type loans, 82
 - Mozambique, 74
 - MyRichUncle, 84, 98
- N
- Namibia, xxii, 69, 70, 87
 - Nepal, 78
 - Netherlands, 24, 26, 64, 69, 96
 - New Zealand, xxii, 24, 26, 45, 69
 - NGOs (non-governmental organizations), 58, 75
 - Nicaragua, 15, 48, 52, 78
 - Niger, 74
 - Nigeria, xxi, 49, 53, 68, 93

- Nokia Ltd., 18
 non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 58, 75
 nonformal learning, recognition of, 66–67
 Nordic countries, 60–61, see also specific countries
 North Africa, 68, 74, 109, see also specific countries
 North America, distance learning in, 51 Norway, 24
 numeracy assessment as benchmark, 103
- O
 online learning, see distance learning; Internet open/virtual universities (tertiary distance learning), 49, 51, 53 Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 accreditation, xxii
 career guidance and counseling programs, 54
 support for lifelong learning concept, 108
 organizational change and technology, 13, 18 outputs
 accreditation by output or performance measures, xxii–xxiii, 67–68
 benchmarking educational systems by, 102, 105
- P
 Pacific Islands Forum, 69
 Pacific Region, 109
 Pakistan, 25, 36
 Paraguay, 93
 part-time learning, xxi, 47, 85
 partnerships, public-private (cross-sectoral strategies), 63–65, 108, 109
 payroll levies, 93–94
 PDAs (personal development accounts), 96
 pedagogy, see education and training personal development accounts (PDAs), 96
 Peru, 75
 PETS (Public Expenditure Tracking Surveys), 58
 Philippines, 26, 66, 75, 82
 PISA (Programme for International Student Assessment), 15, 25–27, 102, 103, 111 planning for change, 108
 Poland
 adult continuing education and training, access to, 45
 civil society, participation in, 27
 literacy, 24
 private sector education and training, xviii, 19
 rates of return on education, 10
 TIMSS and PISA performance, 26
 policy issues, see governance and policy issues political aspects of education reform, 103, see also governance and policy issues Portugal, 24
 postsecondary education, see tertiary education primary education, see early childhood education private sector, xxi–xxii, 17–19
 financing lifelong learning, xxiii, 75–77, 80, 85, 87, 98
 growing role of, xviii–xix
 public-private partnerships (cross-sectoral strategies), 63–65, 108, 109
 secondary schooling provided through, 77 World Bank support for lifelong learning, 108 problem solving assessment as benchmark, 103 Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA), 15, 25–27, 102, 103, 111
 prose literacy, 23
 Public Expenditure Tracking Surveys (PETS), 58
 public-private partnerships (cross-sectoral strategies), 63–65, 108, 109
 public spending on education, xxiii, 73–76, 80, 98–99
- Q
 quality assurance, xxii, 65–70
 quantitative literacy, 23
- R
 radio for distance learning, 48, 52
 reallocation of resources, 77–78, 91
 reform of educational systems, agenda for, xxiii–xxiv, 101–111 remedial vs. accelerated programs, 30–31 Republic of Korea
 computer hardware and output growth, 4
 coordination across ministries, 60
 distance learning, 50, 51

- math and science skills, 25
- nonformal learning, recognition of, 66, 67
- private secondary education, 77
- TIMSS and PISA performance, 26
- responsibility of learners for own learning, 78, 80
- Romania
 - assessment and certification standards, 66
 - distribution of public expenditures by income quintile, 78
 - private sector education and training, xviii, 19
 - TIMSS performance compared to per capital GNP, 26
 - World Bank project in, xiv, 108, 109
- Russian Federation, 25, 26, 27
- S
- SABIS school network, 63, 64
- savings programs, 90, 95–98
- Scandia, 96
- Scandinavian countries, 60–61, see also specific countries
- scholarship programs, 77, 95
- schooling, see education and training
- schools, socioeconomic and organizational features of, 27
- science and math skills, 25–27, 103
- Scotland, see United Kingdom
- secondary education
 - assessment standards and accreditation, xix, xxii
 - basic competencies, requirements for mastering, 77
 - developing and transitional economies, 1
 - distance learning, xxi
 - enrollment levels in low-income countries, 74
 - financing, 74, 75, 77–78, 91–96
 - gender equity, 15
 - governance and policy issues, 60–63, 68–69
 - Hungarian project, 110
 - Jamaica project, 104
 - migration/emigration/immigration, 14
 - private sector, xxii, 19
 - transforming learning, 23–27, 33, 38, 40, 44–45, 47–48, 53, 55
 - wage differentials and returns on schooling, 8–11
- SEIGYM (Somali Educational Incentives for Girls and Young Men), 85–87
- self-directed learning, 31
- Senegal, 19
- simulations, computer-based, 38–39
- Singapore, 4, 26, 30, 53, 70
- skilled labor, see highly skilled workers
- skills and competencies for a knowledge economy, xix–xx, 21–28, 76–78, 103, 104
- Slovak Republic, 25, 26, 27
- Slovenia, 24, 26
- social capital, 3–4
- social heterogeneity, ability to cope with
 - as knowledge economy competency, 22
- society and community
 - benchmarking, 103
 - community-connected learning, 33
 - participation in civil society as knowledge economy competency, 27–28
 - public-private partnerships, 63–65
- socioeconomic background, role of, 27, 78
- Solon, 57
- Somali Educational Incentives for Girls and Young Men (SEIGYM), 85–87
- South Africa
 - assessment and certification standards, xxii, 68, 69
 - distance learning, 48, 49
 - language of instruction, 24–25
 - technology and computer access, 42, 43
 - TIMSS performance compared to per capital GNP, 26
- South America, see Latin America
- South Asia, 14, 68, 74
- South Korea, see Republic of Korea
- Southern African Development Community, 69
- Spain, 96
- Sri Lanka, 50, 51
- student loans, 82, 87, 88, 92
- Sub-Saharan Africa, see also specific countries
 - accreditation, 68
 - human capital, social and private returns on investment in, 7
 - low education and skill levels, problems with, 74
 - wage differentials, artificial compression of, 6
 - women, disparity in education of, 14
 - World Bank documents, 109

- subsidization mechanisms, 79, 85–92
 Swaziland, 49
 Sweden, 8, 24, 45, 96
 Switzerland, 24
- T
- tacit knowledge assessment as benchmark, 103
 Taiwan (China), 16, 25, 26
 Tanzania, 58
 targeted vouchers, 77, 94
 taxation
 graduate taxes, 83, 89
 learning tax credit, 90
 payroll levies, 93–94
 staff training, Chilean rebate for, 81
 teachers and teacher training
 changing learning environment, implications of, xx, 34–36
 distance learning, 49–50
 ICTs, 36–37
 public-private partnerships, 65
 technology, 41–42
 technical and vocational education and training, 62, 66, 92–97, 109 technology, 1, 5, 7, 12–13, see also computers; information and communication technologies (ICTs); Internet
 cost issues, 41–42
 distance learning, 47–54
 economic growth and, 5, 7
 highly skilled workers, need for, 12–13 organizational change and, 13, 18
 policy choices regarding, 42–43
 public-private partnerships, 64
 teachers and teacher training, 41–42
 transforming learning by use of, 36–44
 women, disparity in education of, 14–15
 World Bank support, 43
 television for distance learning, 48, 52, 53
 tertiary education
 accreditation based on student achievement, xxiii
 developing and transitional economies, 7, 17
 enrollment levels in low-income countries, 74
 equity of access to, xix, 78
 financing, 76–79, 81–82, 85–87, 91, 93–94, 97, 99
 gender equity, 14–15
 governance and policy issues, 58, 60–62, 66–71
 Hungarian project, 110
 migration/emigration/immigration, 14
 part-time and continuing education, xxi
 private sector, xviii, xxiii, 17, 19, 76
 Romanian project, 104
 transforming learning, 25, 38, 44, 46–47, 49, 50–51, 53, 55
 wage differentials and returns on schooling, 8–11
 World Bank projects, 109
 World Bank report, xiii–xiv, 108, 109
 Thailand, 26, 48, 71, 75
 ThinkerTools, 39
 Third International Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS), 24–27, 102, 111 traditional education flexibility, increasing, xxi, 46–47
 lifelong learning model vs., xix–xx, 28–29, 58 pace and depth of change, accommodating, xxiv, 103 training, see education and training
 transforming learning, xix–xxi, xxiv, 21–55, 101–111
 access to learning, expansion of, 44–46
 benchmarking, xxiv, 102–107
 career guidance and counseling, 54–55
 distance learning, 47–54
 effective learning environments, 31–34
 methods of learning, changing, 28–31 pace and depth of change, accommodating, 103
 planning for change, 108
 skills and competencies, 21–28
 teachers and teacher training, 34–36
 technology, 36–44
 transitional economies, see developing and transitional economies
 Trinidad and Tobago, 69
 Tunisia, 26
 Turkey, 26, 42, 51, 62, 75
- U
- Uganda, 6–7, 49, 58, 69, 76
 United Kingdom
 adult continuing education and training, access to, 45
 assessment and certification standards, xxii, 68, 69

- civil society, participation in, 27
 - computer hardware and output growth, 4
 - coordination across ministries, 60
 - distance learning, 51
 - individual learning accounts (ILAs), 95, 96–97
 - literacy, 24
 - payroll levies, halt to, 93
 - public-private partnerships, 63, 64
 - rates of return on education, 8, 9
 - TIMSS and PISA performance, 26
 - vouchers, 93
 - United States
 - adult continuing education and training, access to, 45
 - Air Force technicians, computer-assisted learning programs for, 39
 - civil society, participation in, 27
 - commercial bank, case study of technological and organizational change at, 13
 - computer-assisted learning, 38–39
 - computer hardware and output growth, 4
 - G.I. Bill, 94
 - income-contingent repayment schemes, 85
 - individual development accounts (IDAs), 97
 - Internet learning, 40
 - literacy, 24
 - private sector education and training, 17
 - public-private partnerships, 63, 64
 - rates of return on education, 8
 - TIMSS and PISA performance, 26
 - wage differentials, financing education for reduction of, 75
 - universal basic education, 76–78
 - Uruguay, 9, 52
 - USAID, 50
- V
- Venezuela, 9, 48, 63, 64
 - vertical coordination of educational governance, 59–63
 - Vietnam, 78
 - virtual/open universities (tertiary distance learning), 49, 51, 53
- vocational and technical education and training, 62, 66, 92–97, 109
 - vouchers, 77, 89
 - Bolsa Escola program, Brazil, 95
 - indirect fiscal contributions in Chile, 81
 - Somali Educational Incentives for Girls and Young Men (SEIGYM), 87
 - targeted vouchers, 77, 94
- W
- wage differentials
 - artificial compression of, 6
 - education rates of return on, 8–11
 - financing education for reduction of, 75
 - Western Europe, see Europe; European Union (EU)
 - Wolfensohn, James D., xiii, 1, 108
 - women and girls
 - disparity in education and technology training, 14–15, 71
 - intergenerational effect of education, 7
 - productivity and labor supply, effect of education and training on, 7
 - scholarships for girls in Guatemala, 95
 - Somali Educational Incentives for Girls and Young Men (SEIGYM), 85–87
 - World Bank
 - assessment and certification standards, 66
 - cross-sectoral strategies (public-private partnerships), 108, 109
 - documents, 108, 109
 - ICT in education, support for, 43
 - Lifelong Learning and Training project, 60, 109
 - lifelong learning concept, support for, xiii–xiv, xxiv, 108–111
 - Mexico Higher Education Financing Project, 87
 - projects, 60, 108–111
 - World Conference on Education for All, Jomtien, Thailand, 71
 - World Trade Organization (WTO), 17
- Z
- Zambia, 45
 - Zimbabwe, 19, 42, 45