

TABLE OF CONTENTS

OVERVIEW	vi
1. THE MIDDLE EAST’S ECONOMIC CHALLENGES	1
Recent developments	1
The challenges	4
Female entrepreneurs can become an engine of growth.....	5
How the report is organized.....	6
2. FEMALE-OWNED FIRMS DEFY THE EXPECTED.....	10
More women are individual owners than expected	12
Female-owned firms are large and well established.....	13
Female-owned firms participate in the global economy.....	16
Women employ more educated workers and more women.....	17
Female- and male-owned firms have similar productivity	20
3. INVESTMENT CLIMATE BARRIERS TO FEMALE-OWNED FIRMS	22
Investment climate barriers are not particularly gendered.....	23
The nongendered business environment raises questions about the scarcity of female entrepreneurs.....	28
Annex 3.1 Country-specific results on perceived investment climate barriers	29
4. IS IT MORE DIFFICULT TO START FEMALE-OWNED FIRMS?	34
Attitudes toward working women may hinder women’s entrepreneurship	34
Gender-neutral obstacles to doing business can hit female entrepreneurs harder	40
Business and economic laws are not a problem for female entrepreneurship—other laws are	44
5. HOW TO BOOST FEMALE ENTREPRENEURSHIP.....	48
Reduce barriers to all firms.....	48
Address gendered social norms and differential treatment under the law	49
Next steps.....	50
APPENDIX A PERCEPTIONS AND FEMALE EMPLOYMENT: METHODOLOGY AND EMPIRICAL RESULTS.....	51
APPENDIX B BUSINESS LAWS IN MIDDLE EASTERN AND NORTH AFRICAN COUNTRIES	58
REFERENCES	74

TABLES

Table 2.1 Distribution of male- and female-owned firms, by size and average years of experience	14
Table 2.2 Distribution of male- and female-owned firms, by sector and location.....	15
Table 2.3 Workforce composition, by education	18
Table 2.4 Workforce composition, by skill level of position.....	18
Table 3.1 Percentage of male- and female-owned firms reporting the actual occurrence of selected constraints	26
Table 3A.1 Percentage of male and female-owned firms reporting investment climate constraints as major or very severe obstacles to business operation and growth, by the gender of the owner and country.....	33
Table 4.1 Work is valued less in the Middle East and North Africa than in other regions	35
Table 4.2 Attitudes toward working women are less positive in the Middle East than in most other developing regions	38
Table 4.3 Self-employment is about as common in the Middle East as in other regions	41
Table A1 Key employment statistics and governance measures	53
Table A2 Employment and perception indices	55
Table A3 Employment in the Middle East and North Africa region	56

FIGURES

Figure 1 Female-owned firms are often as large as male-owned firms	viii
Figure 2 Female-owned firms are hiring more workers in Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, and the West Bank and Gaza	ix
Figure 3 A binding investment climate for all firms in the Middle East and North Africa	x
Figure 4 A lower share of women entrepreneurs where doing business is more difficult	xii
Figure 1.1 The Middle East is outstripping other developing regions in creating jobs and cutting unemployment.....	2
Figure 1.2 Rising education and labor force participation for women	3
Figure 1.3 Female labor force participation is lower in the Middle East than elsewhere (2005).....	4
Figure 1.4 Can gender gaps in entrepreneurship lead to productivity gaps?	6
Figure 2.1 Female-owned firms are relatively rare in the Middle East	10
Figure 2.2 The share of female-owned firms varies across the region	11
Figure 2.3 Enterprises owned individually, by gender of owner (percent).....	13
Figure 2.4 Sources of finance in Jordan and Lebanon, by gender of owner.....	16
Figure 2.5 Global orientation of male- and female-owned firms.....	17
Figure 2.6 Female workers hired in male- and female-owned firms	19
Figure 2.7 Female-owned firms are hiring more workers in Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, and the West Bank and Gaza	20
Figure 2.8 Productivity differences between male- and female-owned firms	21
Figure 3.1 The investment climate is binding for both male- and female-owned firms in the Middle East and North Africa	23
Figure 3.2 Perception of the investment climate in the Middle East and North Africa, by gender of the principal owner	24
Figure 3.3 Finance barriers in Yemen, by gender of the principal owner	27

Figure 3A.1 Percentage of male- and female-owned firms reporting investment climate constraints as major or very severe obstacles to business operation and growth.....	29
Figure 4.1 Nonwork activities are valued in the Middle East.....	36
Figure 4.2 The work preference index is positively correlated with female labor force participation and female entrepreneurship.....	37
Figure 4.3 Attitudes toward working women are correlated with female labor force participation—and entrepreneurship.....	39
Figure 4.4 Work preference and labor force participation are positively correlated with rule of law and control of corruption	40
Figure 4.5 The costs of opening and closing a business are high in the Middle East, as are the number of procedures required	42
Figure 4.6 Closing a business in the Middle East is cumbersome and costly.....	43
Figure 4.7 Women in the Middle East begin to leave the labor force between ages 25 and 29.....	43
Figure 4.8 Business regulations and female entrepreneurship.....	44