

About Speakers

Panel 1: The Institutional Foundations for Performance Budgeting

Roberto Garcia-Lopez

Roberto García López is PRODEV Coordinador of the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB). He has over 30 years of professional experience in the area of economic development. He also has extensive experience in planning, national strategies, budget and financial management, program formulation and evaluation, public and private investment projects. He was Executive Director of the World Bank for Argentine, Bolivia, Chile, Paraguay, Peru and Uruguay and Alternate Executive Director of the IDB for Argentine and Haiti. He held various offices in the public administration in his natal country Argentina, as Associate Secretary of Economy, Associate Secretary of Planning, Director of Budget and Director of Public Investment, etc. He has taught at the University of Buenos Aires, Argentine University of Company and University of Belgrano. He has worked as a consultant for IDB, World Bank, Organization of American States (OAS) and UNDP.

He has graduated in economics from the University of Buenos Aires and completed his post graduate Studies in Fiscal Decentralization at Harvard University and in International Finance at the University of Tokyo- EximBank of Japan, and in Planning at the University of Cordoba.