

About Speakers

Panel 2: Production and Quality of Information for PB

Lewis Hawke

Lewis has worked as a senior executive and adviser on public sector management and budgeting for more than 20 years in Australia, Europe and Asia. He designed the Australian Government's outcomes and outputs framework and strategic review arrangements. He advised HM Treasury (UK) on performance reporting aspects of resource accounting and budgeting.

Lewis has also worked as a public sector financial management consultant on major public sector reform projects in Asia, Europe and Africa. He was a specialist consultant for the Australian National Audit Office on audits and better practice guides on performance information and reporting from 2001-04. He was a member of the international working group that developed the public sector agency supplement to Global Reporting Initiative sustainability reporting guidelines. He was recently appointed as the World Bank's Senior Financial Management Specialist for South Eastern Europe.

Lewis holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Hons) and a Master of Business. He is a national fellow of the Institute of Public Administration, Australia and an associate member (ASA) of CPA Australia. He is completing a PhD on public sector performance management at the University of Canberra.