

English

All men are born free.
All men are equal before God.

All men are innocent until proven guilty.
All men are good until some do evil.
All men are just until some do injustice.

All men in Srebrenica had been alive until some have been killed.

All are guilty until those who have committed the crime are brought to justice.

Evil is present, but it is not absolute.
Good is absolute, but sometimes is absent.

Ten years ago here in Potocari good conceded. In a moment evil has prevailed to bear witness about the state of our world. Today, before these people who were killed on 11th of July, 1995 only because they were Muslims, the world conscience must be awoken.

The world cannot survive evil and crime against humanity. The world can live only by good.

The world in which we live today is not the best possible world. The world in which our children shall live might be the best possible world provided we all rise up

Be they Muslims, Jews,
Christians, or Sabians,
those who believe in God and the Last Day
and who do good
have their reward with their Lord.
They have nothing to fear,
and will not sorrow.

Dear Almighty God,
We come here
to be clear that we will not give up justice.

We come here to listen to those who have been calling for help to the Heaven and the Earth,
the Day and the Night,
the Word and the Might
that the sword be taken away from those who have been killing during the day and the night.

We come here,
to face the truth about us and about them.

Our Lord,
Do not let success deceive us
Nor failure take us to despair!
Always remind us that failure is a temptation
That precedes success!

Our Lord,

Teach us that tolerance is the highest degree of power
And the desire for revenge
The first sign of weakness!

Our Lord,
If you deprive us of our property,
Give us hope!
If you grant us with success,
Give us also the will-power to overcome defeat!
If you take from us the blessing of health,
Provide us with the blessing of faith!

Our Lord,
If we sin against people,
give us the strength of apology!
And if people sin against us,
Give us the strength of forgiveness!

Our Lord
If we forget You,
Do not forget us.

May grief become hope!
May revenge become justice!
May mothers' tears become prayers?
That Srebrenica
Never happens again
To no one and nowhere!