

---

Maritime Infrastructure in Africa

Overview

---

- Current African Trends
- Local Transport Situation
- Trade Pattern
- Conclusions

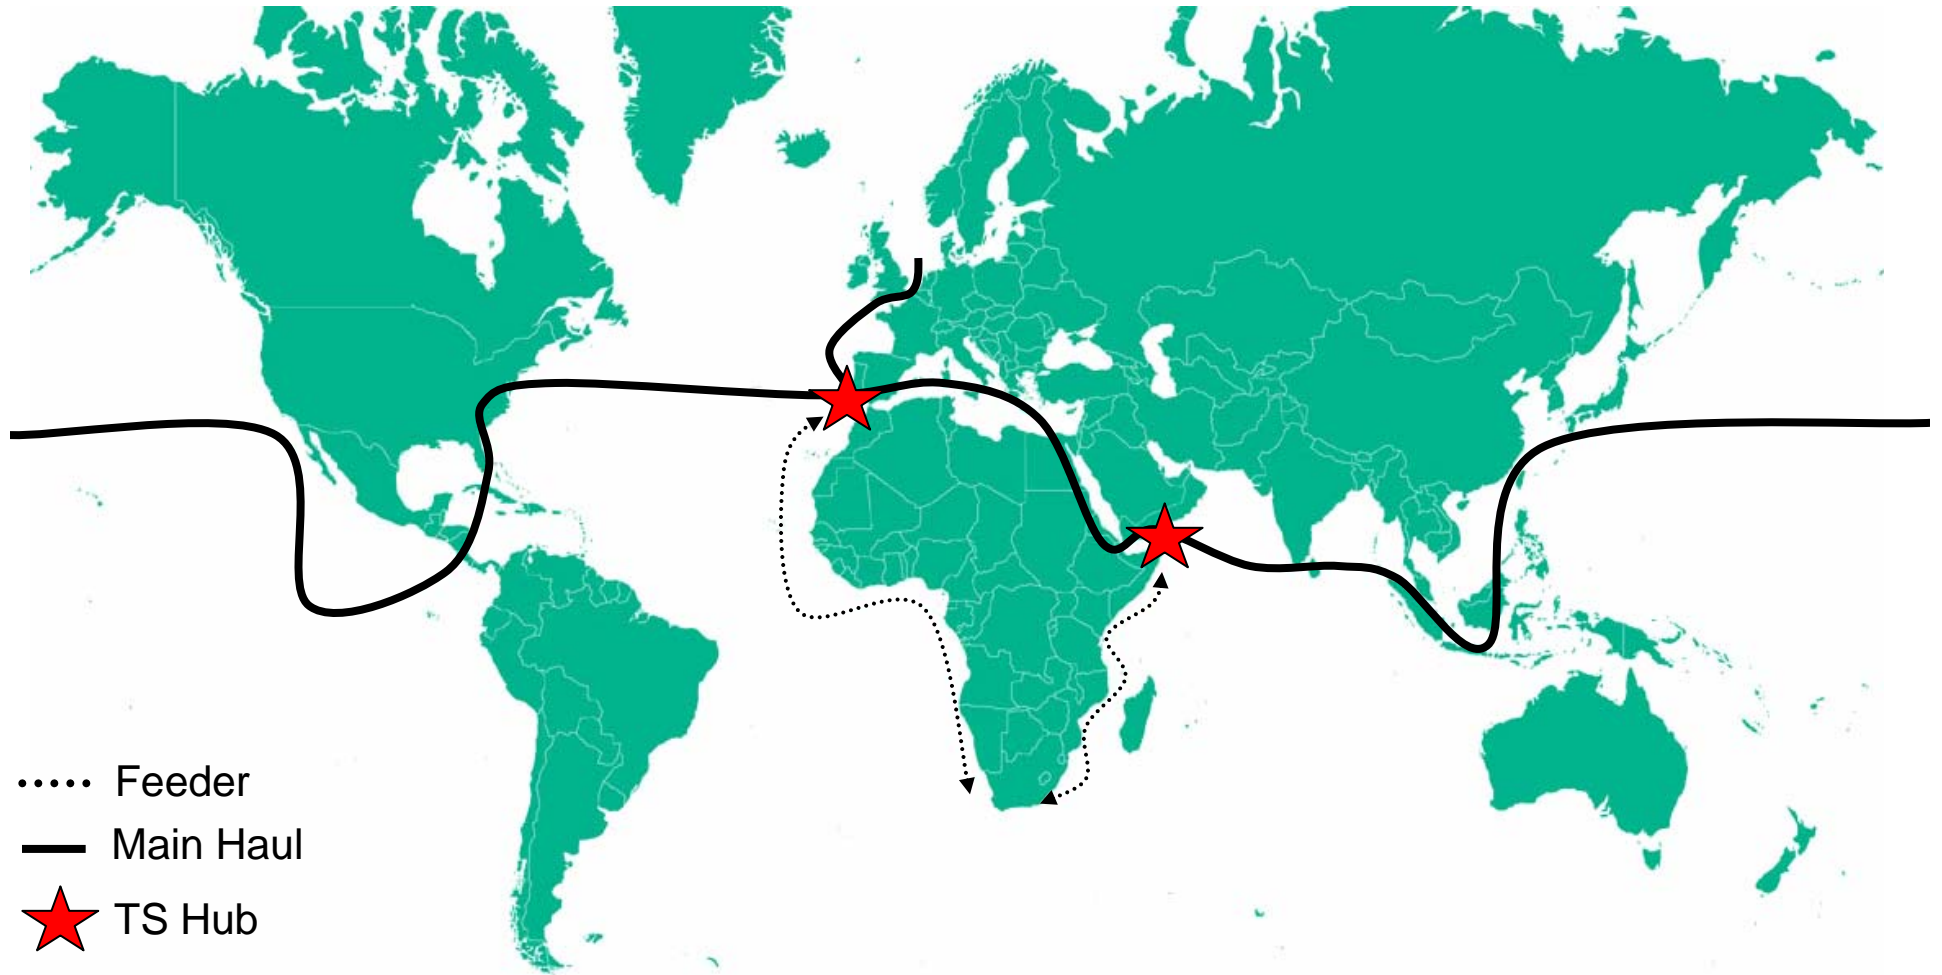

---

Current African Trends

---

- Shipping is the predominant mode of transport in Africa
- Private Sector involvement in port development is generally low
- Most ports are lacking basic vessel support services
- Dwell times for containers long
- Port expansion can be severely limited by surroundings
- Higher than global average crime rate

Major trade Pattern Today for African Cargo

04/04/2007

Source: www.ci-online.co.uk

---

Dependence

Independence

Interdependence

---