

Annex D Presentations and CD-Rom Reader

1. What is the National Statistical System – an introduction to the NSS

- What is the NSS
- Changing demands
- Need for Coordination

2. Organizational models for the NSS

Reading materials include UN Statistical Handbook, fundamental principles of official statistics, codes of practice and measuring statistical capacity.

- Autonomy
- Centralised and decentralised systems
- NSS organisation
- Functions of an agency
- Staffing considerations

3. Meeting user demands from the NSS

Reading materials include NSS models, statistical laws, protocols, compendia, quality standards and codes of practice.

- Quality considerations
- Quality standards
- Data warehousing and sharing

4. Management of the NSS

Reading materials include performance management, internal standards, and ethics

- Statistical management
- Core series
- Additional demands on a statistical system
- Planning
- Performance management

5. Managing the statistical production process

Reading materials include data access, confidentiality, HIS network, data management

- Production process
- Organisational structures
- ICT considerations
- National accounts needs

6. Strategic planning

Reading materials include NSDS guides, Addis Ababa Plan of Action, MISP, SWAT, StatsSA Work programme, Stats Canada strategic priorities.

- Background
- PARIS21 NSDS Approach
- SWAT analysis
- Multi-annual planning
- National planning cycles
- Approval and implementation
- Feedback and monitoring

7. Costing the plan – funding – donor alignment

Reading materials include UNECA Financing of statistics; PARIS21 Funding Task Team, STATCAP, Trust Fund brochure .

- Implementation plans
- Costing and budgets
- Autonomous agencies additional costs
- Financing options
- Sources of external funding

8. Managing capacity building and technical cooperation.

Reading materials include reports on donor harmonisation, roundtable meetings on data, results, statistics and accountability, .

- Planning capacity building
- Technical assistance
- South-south cooperation
- Donor policy environment
- Statistics funds
- Rome and Paris declarations