References

Patterns of Pension Provision.” World Bank, Washington, DC.
Pritchett, Lant. 1999. “Has Education Had a Growth Payoff in the MENA Region?” Middle East and North Africa Working Paper 18, World Bank, Human Development Group and Social and Economic Development Group, Washington, DC.
Pension Debt in MENA: Fiscal and Equity Implications.” Policy Robalino, David A., and Mohammed Marouani. Forthcoming. “Assessing the Impacts of Social Insurance Policies in Labor Markets in a Series, World Bank, Washington, DC.
Pay Programs in the Middle East and North Africa Region.” Policy
Robalino, David A., Oleksiy Sluchynsky, and Tatjana Bogomolova.
2005. “Pensions in Iraq: Issues, General Guidelines for Reform, and Bank, Washington, DC.
Sala-i-Martin, Xavier, and Elsa V. Artadi. 2002. “Economic Growth and Investment in the Arab World.” In Arab World Competitiveness Report
Oxford University Press.
Schwarz, Anita, and Aslı Demirgüç-Kunt. 1999. “Taking Stock of Pension Reforms around the World.” Social Protection Discussion Paper 9917, World Bank, Washington, DC.
“Tunisia: Strategy for Public Debt Management.” World Bank,
Washington, DC.
St. Joseph University. 2004. “Economic and Trade Statistics, Unem-
Lebanon: U.S. and Foreign Commercial Service and U.S.
Department of State.
Studies of the Czech Republic, Hungary, and Poland.” Paper presented to an OECD conference, Warsaw, May.
Swedish Pension System. 2003. Third Swedish National Pension Fund Available at http://www.census.gov/ipc/www/idbnew.html.
throughout the World, 2002–2004.” Washington, DC. Available at www.ssa.gov.us.

