

IEG Level-2 Evaluation Toolkit: 13 Simple Steps to Measure Participant Learning

Have you ever wondered ...

- ... How much participants learn in your courses?
- ... What they learn?
- ... How to evaluate what participants learn?
- ... How your courses compare to others evaluated at Level-2?

Get the answers using IEG Level-2 Evaluation Toolkit that includes:

Data collection tips

Test form templates in 11 languages

课后问卷

请在下面的方格内填写您的评估号码, 这个号码应与您在本课第一份问卷上填写的一样。如果您忘记了您的号码, 请查看您的文件夹首页。如果您在文件夹首页上找不到该号码, 请回答下面的问题来重组这个号码:

您出生的乡、县、或市名的第一个字: _____

您母亲全名的第二个字: _____

您参加工作的公元年份: _____

Searchable database with test items and results of over 100 L2 evaluations

Number of Offerings	Pre-test	Learning gain	Post-test
WBIFP - 17 Offering(s)	48%	12%	59%
WBIHD - 45 Offering(s)	41%	13%	54%
WBIEN - 8 Offering(s)	47%	6%	53%
WBIPR - 26 Offering(s)	40%	12%	52%

Excel templates with automated results

	A	B	C	D	E	F	G
67	(Correct answers are identified by the symbol *.)
68	Pre-Test Items						Total N ¹	Total % ²	Matched N
69	1. Of the three approaches to working with the private sector, "conversion" is:
70	a. welcomed by civil servants the most.						3	7.7%	3
71	b. most likely to help governments reach difficult to reach populations.						8	23.0%	9
72	c. the least politically risky approach.						1	2.8%	1
73	d. the most useful in addressing excessive capacity in the public sector.*						3	7.7%	3
74	e. I don't know.						22	56.4%	21
75	2. "Growing" and "harnessing" the private sector are:
76	a. different approaches for regulating the private sector.						12	30.8%	12
77	b. the same approach, but for different audiences.						3	7.7%	3

For questions or comments, please send an email to the "WBI Evaluation Help Desk."